The Lost Tango.

once there was a little dog called Google. he was a Golden retriever he has a brown nose like a chocolate - button he also had brown eyes like melted chocolate. He had golden fur like real gold. He has a favorite toy called tango he has hairy orange fur and black eyes. One day tango was gone on he whines tango gone Google buried into seats Google's friend came home. his name was TOM he was fluffy white ginger fur. What's the matter Google I've lost tango on my gosh on my gosh. you cant go any where without tango.
